

Community Associations Institute (CAI)
Community Association Managers International Certification Board (CAMICB)
Credentials

CMCA® - Certified Manager of Community

Associations® - The first step for a professional community manager to demonstrate the fundamental knowledge required to manage a community association.

Requirements:

- Successfully complete an in-depth comprehensive training course covering the essentials of community association management or have 5 years experience of community association management or hold an active Arizona CAAM, California CCAM, Florida CAM or Nevada CAM.
- Complete and submit the CMCA application.
- Pass the CMCA Examination; a 120 question, psychometrically sound examination prepared under national standards and guidelines to meet the requirements of a valid certification testing tool.
- Comply with the CAMICB Standards of Professional Conduct

How to maintain:

- Complete 16 hours of continuing education every two (2) years

*** The CMCA certification, administered by CAI's affiliate organization, Community Association Managers International Certification Board (CAMICB)

AMS®—Association Management Specialist® - The second level in the nationally recognized career development track for community association managers. The AMS designation demonstrates a higher level of understanding of the role of a community association manager and additional experience in the community association management profession.

Requirements:

- Pass the CMCA examination.
- Complete two or more years of community association management experience.
- Successfully pass two - 200-level Professional Management Development Program (PMDP) courses.
- Comply with the CAI Professional Manager Code of Ethics

How to maintain:

- Redesignate every three years
- Meet continuing education requirements (one PMDP Course and 8 hours of advanced continuing education units)
- No longer required to maintain CMCA

PCAM®—Professional Community Association Manager® - The pinnacle of community association management. The PCAM designation is the highest professional recognition available nationwide to managers who specialize in community association management.

Requirements:

- Pass the CMCA examination.
- Earn the AMS designation.
- Successfully pass all six 200-level courses in CAI's PMDP curriculum, plus a Case Study.
- Complete five or more years of community association management experience.
- Comply with the CAI Professional Manager Code of Ethics.

How to maintain:

- Redesignate every three years
- Meet continuing education requirements – advanced PMDP program or Law Seminar or CEO-MC Retreat (see current redesignation application for details)
- No longer required to maintain CMCA

AAMC® - Accredited Association Management Company® - The AAMC accreditation demonstrates a company's commitment to providing the unique and diverse services community associations need. An Accredited Association Management Company ensures that their staff has the skills, experience, and integrity to help communities succeed.

Requirements:

- A minimum of three years of experience providing community association management services.
- At least three full-time employees, one of whom is a manager.
- A Professional Community Association Manager (PCAM) designee as the company's senior manager.
- A staff of which 50% of managers hold a professional designation (CMCA, AMS, or PCAM).
- Maintain fidelity, general liability, and worker's compensation insurance in addition to meeting federal, state, and local laws.
- Comply with the CAI Professional Manager Code of Ethics.

How to Maintain:

- Renew designation every three years